and, Oneida county, where he was much respected, not only by his church, but by the public at large.

Rev. Mr. Baker, formerly of Winchester, Va., and but lately removed to Caroline, where he had just established a female seminary, died a few days ago. He was much respected, and his death will be deeply lamented by many friends.

The Rev. and venerable Joshua Bradley died at St. Faul, Minnesota. on November 22, 1855, in the eighty-fourth year of his age. Mr. Bradley has been extensively known throughout more than halt of the United States, not only as an eloquent and faithful minister of the Gospel in the Baptist church, but as a realous, self-sacribeing pioneer in the establishment of academies and seminaries, and laying the foundation for two or three colleges in as many States. He was at the head of Rock Spring Seminary, the first boarding school, other than those under Catholic direction, opened in Illinois in 1827 and 1828; and many who will read this brief notice will call to remembrance their highly esteemed instructor. His last labors in the cause of education were in the office of "Superintendent of Public Instruction," in the new Territory of Minnesota. Few men have been more faithful and successful in the Christian ministry than this venerable pioneer for sixty years. His last illness was of several weeks' continuance, during which patience and resignation had their perfect work. His end was triumphant and glorious.

FILIAL DEVOTION.—Miss Duow, daughter of Volkert P. Duow, who, with Mr. D., was on the fata train of the Hudson River Railroad, on Wednesday while ministering to her father, who was thrown violently from the train, she being nearly embedded in snow, had both her feet severely frost bitten. It was at one time feared that amputation would be necessary, but, we are most happy to say, so dreadful an alternative has been averted. The devotion of Miss Duow is evidence of the possession of a noble heart.—Albany Argus, Jan. 12.

THE FIRE AT NEWPORT, R. I.—The Touro House cost Mr. Devers $25,000. He is insured for $15,000, and by adding the value of the land to this, it will reduce his loss to about $5,000. His safe was taken out of the ruins on Friday morning, and, the papers and plate in it were found in perfect order. Of his furniture, with the exception of a piano, probably not twenty dollars' worth was saved, so dense wathe smoke, and so rapidly spread the flames.
